Job and Resource Fair in Snow Hill Offers Wide Array of Career Opportunities

Snow Hill, Maryland – Calling all job seekers. Meet prospective employers from across Worcester County and choose from a variety of part-time and year-round jobs at the Worcester County Job and Resource Fair on Wednesday, April 1, at the Snow Hill Volunteer Fire Company from 2:00 – 5:00 p.m. This event is free and open to the public.

“This job fair brings opportunities directly to community members within the county,” WCTED Workforce Development Specialist Nancy Schwendeman said. “This is the perfect chance to network and connect with local employers, while simultaneously exploring valuable resources available to you. A full list of participating employers will be released closer to the date of the job fair.”

Come prepared, ready to network, and take the next step towards your professional goals. There will be an array of exciting opportunities across various industries. Whether you’re an experienced professional looking to advance your career, a recent graduate ready to embark on your first job, or seeking part-time employment, this event caters to individuals at every stage of their career journey. Registration is not required, but is recommended. To register, visit <https://tinyurl.com/AprilRegistration>.

Additional community resources will be available, including representatives from the American Job Center, Wor-Wic Community College, the Department of Labor, Worcester County Adult Education, Shore Transit, and other organizations offering assistance. Spanish and Haitian Creole interpreters will be on-site to provide interpreter services.

Worcester County Tourism and Economic Development (WCTED) is hosting this event in partnership with the Worcester County Department of Social Services, Town of Snow Hill, and Maryland Department of Labor. For more information, contact Schwendeman at nschwendeman@worcestermd.gov or (410) 632-3112 x2120 or visit www.choosemarylandscost.org.
